SINCE my business is ADVERTISING,
I am taking my own medicine
by advertising myself.

I do not intend to boast about myself, but I do want to tell you what I think
I can do.

There are many clever men in the field. I know I have the keenest competition to meet but that will not prevent me from getting my share of the business.

I feel so sure of being able to help some business men to do a greater business by adopting the style of advertising I believe in, that I will be willing to take a modest fee, as I am certain you would not like, in fairness to me, that I should render this service absolutely free of charge.

Avoid Rheumatism

Rheumatism with its accompanying pains and tortures, is the result of a decreased action of the kidneys which results in an accumulation of Uric Acid in the blood.

Treatment should commence with the first hint of trouble.

Those almost insignificant pains in the small of the back mean trouble—it's a warning of kidney weakness—inability to separate the poisons from the blood

The action of the kidneys is incessant—they work constantly and in company with the liver and bladder strive to purify the blood and keep the system free from poisons. They should have help—if they become weakened and neglected it means Rheumatism or Bright's disease.

If you would avoid these dangerous diseases use

STEARNS' CELERY NERVINE

START WITH THE FIRST SYSTEMS

and make sure that the kidneys are restored to their normal strength and activity.

Nyal's Stone Root Compound was devised for that very purpose—to assist the kidneys, bladder and liver in their functions and rid the system of Uric Acid and other poisons. Does it, too!

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE

Saturday, August, 26th 1916.

WHAT IS WRONG IN BENGAL.

Lord Carmichael delivered a characteristic speech at the Durbur at Dacca on Thursday, a report of which appeared in our columns yesterday. It was characteristic in two respects, first for the sane and sympathetic view expressed by his Excellency in regard to the general situation in Bengal; second for the inadequacy and weakness of the defence of repressive measures which are of a kind better suited to the rule of a Curzon or a Bampfylde Fuller than that of the man who can put in a few telling words the real causes of the discontent and unrest that exist in Bengal and the remedies that should be applied, and is able to measure with such calm and sympathetic judgment the limited extent of a danger, which, grave though it be, is apt to assume disproportionate dimensions in the eyes of those who have not troubled, as Lord Carmichael obviously has, to study at close quarters and without prejudice or preconceived notions the real trend of opinion among the bulk of the people. It is good in these days of rash demands for, and ready inclination to indulge in, the use of the repressive instruments that lie with such dangerous temptation in the hands of the Executive, to have Lord Carmichael's assurance that "there were more Bengalis to-day than there were ever before, who felt that in being loyal to King George they were also loyal to the Motherland." That is an assertion that those who know the Bengal of the last five years, since the King-Emperor came to India to rectify a great wrong, know to be unassailable. But what they fear is, how far the pursuance of the policy which has characterised the Government of Bengal in recent days will alter for the worse the character of the present feelings of the population.

Lord Carmichael went on to say that there are still an appreciable number of young men in Bengal who honestly believed that they could best serve their country by trying to do harm to England. Those he puts on one side, as men who, as they grow older, will change their minds as others have done. They will, if they are not too hopelessly embittered by unsympathetic administration or the continued failure to remedy long-standing grievances and to afford them the opportunities for healthy growth and stimulating self-realisation, without which no educated community can expect to rest content with the circumstances in which they are placed. Then Lord Carmichael deals with a third section who are "only full of self-conceit and greedy of personal gain, too cowardly to come into the open and mean enough to persuade better but more ignorant young men to do what they themselves dare not do. I know," he said "that Bengal regrets that it is so but all Bengal can help to make it so no longer. If there is one strong public opinion that all revolutionary activity is not only futile as a threat to Great Britain but a treachery to Bengal the activity will close. Such public opinion is growing and you can help it to grow."

That is true only provided that Government help to remove the obstacles in the way, instead of placing fresh ones. Lord Carmichael dealt with both but in a way that is a bitterly disappointing anti-climax to the first part of his speech. He said "a more subtle observation was needed,"—by the Government it is to be presumed,—"possibly some changes in the penal laws, better training for young Bengalis, more outlets for their energies and more encouragement to them to make good use of their abilities." That of course is the very basis of the whole trouble. But it is of no use merely to make these statements in a perfunctory way and then proceed to an attempted justification of the policy of remedying unrest and discontent among young Bengal by the use of lettres de cachet and the imprisonment of police suspects on police evidence which is no subjected to the legal tests after which alone such evidence should be accepted, even under the most pressing circumstances. What is the matter with young Bengal, as indeed with the whole of Young India,—only in Bengal the young generation has been into a more violent resentment,—is a disorder which is bound to break out among any people with civilisation and education, which finds itself deprived of those opportunities for self-expression, self-development and the utilisation of their own abilities for their own advancement. It is the disorder of intellectual and material starvation. It is the disorder of a growing manhood which finds that avenues of employment, which in all well-ordered modern communities provide occupations of honour and profit,—and utility to the State,—for the middle classes are closed to them either absolutely or because of the superior and artificial advantages enjoyed by those of another race. And it is a disorder aggravated by the gnawing fact that the political rights by which such disorders may be remedied are non-existent and apparently far distant in realisation. That is the disorder that Young Bengal has, if not in so many words, diagnosed for itself, and as it cannot find or obtain the right medicine it resorts to suicide or blind and vindictive vengeance on society at large.

Lord Carmichael also diagnoses the disorder but he does not suggest the application of the remedy which it is in the power of Government to apply. But until Government courageously and honestly face the diagnosis and determine to apply the remedy, no public opinion in Bengal can grow to such strength as will correct the disorder. We shall deal on another occasion with Lord Carmichael's defence of the extensive policy of repression in which his Government has engaged,—one of the most ominous and disconcerting pronouncements that has issued from the lips of a Governor in this country for many years. But we can at least be grateful to his Excellency that he has the honesty and sympathy to take the public into his confidence and to discuss in the intervals between the applications of the rod of repression, the underlying causes which have brought about its use. He does not work in a lofty silence.

MRS. BESANT AND THE CONGRESS.

We greatly regret that Mrs. Besant should have seen fit to publish the letter she has addressed to the Secretary of the Congress Reception Committee. We greatly regret that such a letter should ever have been penned. The letter must be as embarrassing to its recipient as it is painful to many sincere friends and sympathisers of the writer, and we cannot but feel that when she realises the fulness of its purport, she will lose no time in withdrawing it. Mrs. Besant's claims to the presidency of the Congress, we trust, rest upon broader grounds than those she puts forward in this letter, namely, that the liberty of the Press has been attacked in her person. That is not a sort of ground on which we think any person should have a claim put forward for his or her election to the presidency. Mrs. Besant's supporters would surely prefer to base her claim on the work she has done for the political advancement of India as a whole, and not on a merely fortuitous circumstance, though it would be no doubt gratifying, from a narrow point of view, if public disapproval of certain official acts could be shown in such a fashion. Mrs. Besant herself lays down very clearly and very rightly the principles by which such matters should be governed in a democratic body like the Congress. The majority must rule, and, if one does not agree with it, one must work to change it, but meanwhile one must obey it. That is an unexceptional statement. To work constitutionally within the Congress and within its rules is the only legitimate way to endeavour to bring about its adhesion to the views that any one section within its ranks may favour, and it is the only way in which to preserve a really united Congress. Mrs. Besant herself expresses all this very clearly. It is most unfortunate, however, that she should have gone out of her way to preface the statement of her constitutional position by an attack on those she describes as the "older Congressmen" imputing to them not only personal motives but dishonourable motives. The sweeping statement that "the older Congressmen desire to stand well with the Government" and for that reason, and because they resent her work in bringing about union between the two parties who split in 1907 and they dislike the political energy she has infused into public life, they have manoeuvred to prevent her election as President, ought never to have been made. And we can hardly believe that it is really meant. There can be no hope of unanimity of effort in or outside of the Congress, if personal motives of this sort are to be attributed to opponents, more especially to men who, through long years of obloquy, misrepresentation and official disfavour, kept the Congress banner flying and have rendered inestimable political services to the country. We fear that Mrs. Besant has allowed her experience of, perhaps, one or two individuals to distort her vision. "The triumph of the cause and the unity of the Congress," are, as Mrs. Besant says, "great things." But they require something more than political activity and mere formal adhesion to constitutional forms to bring them about. They require mutual confidence and respect for the good faith of fellow workers and that is not to be brought about by attributing ulterior motives because there is disagreement as to methods.

Notes of the Day.

The Services Commission's Report.

"The Pioneer" expresses strong disapproval of the proposal to publish the Public Services Commission's Report. It doubts whether the reasons given for now publishing the report or the general terms of the official communiqué command general approval, and goes on to say:—

Surely if the avoidance of controversy was necessary at the beginning of the war it is even more necessary now when the prolongation of hostilities makes a still greater call on the patience of all classes of His Majesty's subjects. Then again what precisely is meant by the sentence "His Majesty's Government and the Government of India are now agreed that the advantages of early consideration of the report in particular in so much as it is concerned with the increased employment of Indians in the Public Services, outweigh any inconvenience that might arise from the public discussion during the war of the Commission's recommendations." We trust this does not mean that the consideration of anything and everything in the report that is not "concerned" with the increased employment of Indians is to be postponed to the Greek Kalends? Have the legitimate grievances of Government servants no claim for King and our country?

A Monstrous Sentence.

Mr. Justice Walsh of Allahabad by his recent sympathetic and sound judgments has been doing a good deal to enhance the reputation of the Allahabad High Court. His observations in disposing of a revision application made on behalf of a boy of 14, who had been convicted of perjury, are worthy of note. The prosecution case was that the accused had told a lie in the witness-box in an endeavour to save an elder brother, who was charged with an offence under the Arms Act. For this offence which, as his Lordship observed, it is impossible for any human being to say that he would not have committed in the circumstances in which the boy committed it, he had actually been sentenced to a year's rigorous imprisonment which, on appeal, was subsequently reduced to imprisonment of six months. Mr. Justice Walsh further reduced the sentence to the period already undergone and ordered the immediate release of the accused. In doing so, he said that it was almost a pity that "there was no legislative provision in this country corresponding to that which existed in England, which enabled the Court to bind over such persons to come up for judgment if called upon." Section 362 of the Criminal Procedure Code which empowers the Court to release on probation of good conduct instead of sentencing to punishment is not applicable to a case of perjury, which is punishable by more than two years' imprisonment. It was difficult to see, said Mr. Justice Walsh, why the legislature had imposed a narrow limitation upon the provisions of that section.

"Live and Let Live."

Mr. Justice Walsh has given yet another proof of the sound commonsense,—which is after all the best part of law,—that characterises his judgments. The case which came up in appeal before him and the facts of which are telegraphed to-day, is not of uncommon occurrence in this country,—where a certain class of "superior" persons so forget themselves as to take the law into their own hands quite unjustifiably,—thus completely losing sight of the fact that life consists of a mutual adjustment of conveniences and inconveniences.

As Mr. Justice Walsh said, everybody from time to time has to put up with inconveniences from noise when other people are amusing themselves. In this particular case, besides, there appears to have been a recognised festival with recognised nocturnal celebrations and his Lordship was satisfied that the unfortunate accused persons were engaged in a perfectly lawful occupation. Mr. Justice Walsh has, in short, by his judgment, demonstrated that British Supreme Courts, at least, are not places where the whims arising out of a contemptuous intolerance of the social and traditional practices of the country, are to be pandered to.

Devises of German Butchers.

The efforts of Berlin butchers to conceal meat in order to sell at prices above the maximum lead to strange discoveries. At one shop, where the waiting queue of women were confronted with the legend "Sold Out," the police slipped in and searched the house. They went into every room except the bathroom, where, the butcher said, the Frau Butcheress was having a bath. A vigorous splashing of water heard through the door seemed to confirm the statement. One official, however, became suspicious when one of the crowd of women told him that only just before she had seen the butcher's wife, fully dressed, in the shop. The policeman returned forthwith and forced the door of the bathroom, to find the wife splashing water from one bucket into another, while piled in the bath were thirty sides of pickled pork, twelve sides of bacon, twenty-two hams, and 228 pounds of sausage meat.

At another house the police were asked not to enter a boy's bedroom as he was in bed asleep with a little cousin, the two children having that morning come from a long journey from the country. It seemed a strange sort of excuse, and did not prevent investigation, when the butcher's son was discovered in bed with a whole pig's carcass under the bed-clothes by his side.

Football as War Trophy.

A football which was dribbled into action by officers and men of a battalion of the East Surrey Regiment in their attack of the German trenches at the beginning of the great advance was the occasion of a ceremony at the depot of the regiment, Kingston Barracks, before a special parade of the troops at the depot, and of wounded soldiers from the military hospital. Colonel H. P. Treby, D.S.O., commanding the depot, said he had assembled them that they might witness the opening of a little parcel which contained the historic football of the East Surrey Regiment. The gallant battalion, under the command that day of Major Irvin, advanced in the attack on one of the villages. It was the scene of the heaviest fighting and the battalion was opposed by the Prussian Guard. The battalion was led out of the British trenches by Captain Nevil and the signal for the advance was given by the kicking off of this football. With splendid gallantry this and other footballs were dribbled under withering fire right up to the German trenches.

"At no small cost," said the Colonel, "has this ball been dribbled up to the German trenches. The gallant officer who kicked it off himself fell in front of the German trenches. The care of this sacred emblem of the battalion's devotion and heroism has been entrusted to me by the commanding officer. In affectionate memory we shall lay it up. In years to come it will be a fitting memorial of the devotion and sacrifice of the battalion, who played the game so well on that eventful day and served so heroically our God, our King and our country."

Injunction to German Women.

The Prussian Minister of Public Instruction recently issued an injunction against extravagant fashions in women's dress. It lays down as desirable that, in all girls' schools, impressive teaching should be given as to the harmful effect of these fashions from the economic and national point of view. The shortage of raw material as a result of the British blockade must be explained:—

The current fashion does not accord with the requirement of economy. Owing to its immediately pleated style, its fullness, and the cut of coats and cloaks, it wastes great quantities of stuff, of which often twice as much is used as would be necessary with a simpler arrangement. If the excessive use of stuff were to continue, the meeting of our requirements would in the end inevitably be endangered. The culminating point of the lectures is to be that it is a patriotic duty of our women and girls to accommodate themselves to circumstances in the question of clothes, in order, by reasonable and simple dressing, to render it possible in this respect also to hold out.

THE VICEROY AND THE PRESS ACT.

CONSENT TO RECEIVE A DEPUTATION

His Excellency the Viceroy has agreed to receive a deputation of the Press Association of India regarding the Press Act of 1910. The deputation, consisting of eight members of the Association, according to present arrangements, will wait upon his Excellency the Viceroy during the early part of October.

THE WAR.

SUMMARY OF
TELEGRAMS.RUMANIAN
INTERVENTIONREPORTED PREPARA-TIONS.PART OF MAUREPAS
CARRIED.SERBIAN OFFENSIVE
DEVELOPING.

The well-informed correspondent of the "Berliner Tageblatt" states that Rumania is preparing for war. The Premier, he says, would certainly intervene on the side of the Entente, but the understanding is not yet complete.

Reuter's representative at Headquarters narrates that the fighting on Friday and Saturday, in which the Warwickshires were conspicuous, was begun with a hurricane bombardment compared to which all previous bombardments were as mere whispers and resulted in large surrenders of men belonging to German corps d'elite.

The British, south of Thiepval carried enemy trenches 300 yards by 400 yards deep.

The French have captured by a single rush part of Maurepas still held by the Germans and adjoining trenches. The French carried the line 200 yards beyond on a front of two kilometres.

The French and the British have easily repulsed several enemy attempts to retake positions north of Palmi in Doiran sector. The Serbians are developing an offensive on the whole mountainous front west of Mojenica and have reoccupied a lost height.

A grave political split has occurred in Hungary, leaders of the Constitutionist, Catholic and other parties, announcing their withdrawal from collaboration with Government.

The Russians have repulsed an enemy attack near Toboly on the west bank of the Stokhod.

The Italians are progressing in the Fossennica and Cia Valleys.

The South African Horse have entered Kilossa in East Africa.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 25. The "well-informed Bukharost correspondent of the 'Berliner Tageblatt'" states that Rumania is preparing for war and that Hindenburg is playing the foremost role in the political negotiations at Bucharest.

PROSPECTS OF RUMANIAN
INTERVENTION.UNDERSTANDING WITH ENTENTE NOT YET COMPLETE.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL WAR SERVICE.)

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 24. According to the well-informed Bukharost correspondent of the "Berliner Tageblatt" the temporary tranquillity in Rumania does not signify that the country is not thinking of intervention. The Premier, he says, would certainly intervene on the side of the Entente, but it appears that the various governments have not reached an understanding as to whether Rumania at the peace negotiations shall have co-decisive or only advisory voice.

GRAVE POLITICAL SPLIT IN HUNGARY.PARTY LEADERS WITH DRAW SUPPORT FOR GOVERNMENT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Aug. 24. A grave political split has occurred in Hungary. M. Apponyi in the Chamber announced his withdrawal from collaboration with the Government, but affirmed that the moral unity of the Hungarian nation remained unshaken.

M. Andrássy, Constitutionalist leader, and M. Rakovsky, representative of the Catholic Party, made similar declarations.

AIRSHIP RAID.

BOMBS AIMED AT SHIPS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Aug. 24. It is officially announced that a hostile airship crossed the East Coast shortly before midnight and dropped incendiary and explosive bombs in fields. No damage and no casualties were reported. The airship retreated to the sea before one.

BRITISH HURRICANE BOMBARDMENT.SURRENDER OF GERMAN
CORPS D'ELITE.CONSPICUOUS GALLANTRY OF THE WARWICKS.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL WAR SERVICE.)

LONDON, Aug. 24. Reuter's representative at Headquarters narrates that the fighting on Friday and Saturday, in which the Warwickshires were conspicuous, began on Friday with a hurricane bombardment compared to which all the previous bombardments were as mere whispers.

When the advance began the section was held up by a strong machine-gun post. The attack on it was being organised, when the Germans suddenly displayed a white flag and 242 men and six officers with three machine-guns belonging to the corps d'elite surrendered.

SAVOY WAITER'S AMAZEMENT.

One prisoner, formerly a waiter at the Savoy Hotel, was amazed to hear that the hotel had not been wrecked by Zeppelins and remarked:—"There will be trouble when the Germans find how they have been misled."

The Warwickshires after capturing two machine-gun posts enjoyed a good hot meal all spread out in a deep dug-out. A terrified Boche, hidden behind a curtain which was being bayoneted, yelled:—"No shoot I most quickly go."

General Birdwood warmly thanked the Warwickshires for the support they gave the Anzac.

TESTIMONY TO DEVASTATING EFFECT OF BRITISH FIRE.

The quantity of unposted letters of officers and men found in German trenches continue to testify to the devastating effect of the British fire. An officer writes:—"We have nothing to eat or drink and the ceaseless din of the guns is driving us mad." Others describe their losses. For instance, it is stated that one company has been reduced to four and that the casualties of one regiment are 1800.

STRENUOUS FIGHTING ROUND
GUILLEMONT.GERMAN ATTACKS REPULSED WITH HEAVY LOSSES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Aug. 24. General Haig in a communiqué this afternoon states that the strenuous efforts of the enemy to regain the lost ground between Guillemont station and the quarry have been repulsed.

The attack was pressed with such determination that it reached our parapets in places, but after a sharp struggle was repulsed everywhere with heavy enemy losses.

Afterwards, the enemy bombarded us intensely, but there was no further infantry fighting.

In this afternoon's communiqué General Haig adds:—We continue to take prisoners. Hostile bombing attacks against new trenches north of Basenit-le-Petit were easily repulsed last night.

There was hostile shelling to-night, but mainly in reply to our bombardment.

BRITISH PROGRESS NEAR THIEPVAL.

ENEMY TRENCHES CARRIED,

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Aug. 25. In last night's communiqué General Haig said:—"South of Thiepval, enemy trenches three hundred yards by four hundred yards deep were taken and many prisoners captured."

HALF A MILE FROM THIEPVAL.GERMAN POSITION BECOMING PRECARIOUS.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL WAR SERVICE.)

PARIS, Aug. 24. The continuous British progress on the Somme has now brought us close to the original objectives, namely the villages of Guillemont, Ginchy, Martinpuich, Courcellette and Thiepval.

A footing has been gained in the first named where a desperate struggle has been proceeding for three days against the Brandenburgers who are gradually being worn down. We are only half a mile from Thiepval, where the situation of the Germans is becoming precarious.

FIGHTING IN SOYE-
COURT WOOD.VIOLENT ENEMY ATTACK
REPULSED.BOMBARDMENT ON VER-DUN FRONT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

PARIS, Aug. 24. This afternoon's communiqué says:—The enemy attempted a grenade attack in Soyecourt Wood, but were immediately checked. The attack was preceded by very violent bombardment.

An enemy attack which was being prepared south-east of the wood, was caught by barrage and the Germans were unable to leave their trenches.

There was a violent enemy bombardment of the positions captured by us between Fleury and Thiaumont Work yesterday, when the prisoners taken by us amounted to 250.

There has also been violent artillery firing at Chenois.

Four German aeroplanes have been brought down.

FRENCH ADVANCE IN MAU-REPAS REGION.PART OF VILLAGE CARRIED IN SINGLE RUSH.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

PARIS, Aug. 25. Last night's communiqué said of the Somme we attacked German positions in the Maurepas region and captured by a single rush part of the village still held by the Germans and adjoining trenches. We carried the line two hundred yards beyond on a front of two kilometres. We captured two hundred prisoners and ten machine guns.

South of the Somme there was an artillery duel.

East of the Meuse several German attacks on our new front between Thiaumont and Fleury were repulsed. We advanced slightly beyond Fleury. Three hundred prisoners were taken yesterday and to-day in the Fleury sector.

POONA POLITICAL
SENSATION.CHARGE AGAINST MOULVI
RAFIUDDIN.

AMAZING ALLEGATIONS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

POONA, Aug. 25.

Before Major Leslie, Cantonment Magistrate, to-day, one Mr. Gulam Mohamed, of Bombay, through his pleader, Mr. L. J. Apte, of Poona City, filed an information charging Moultvi Rafuddin Ahmed as follows:—

The complainant says that he came to Poona to see the said Moultvi Rafuddin Ahmed and lived with him. Between 10 and 11 p.m. on the 8th instant three friends of the accused came to Mr. Rafuddin's house and the complainant and visitors had dinner with the accused. Tea was served after dinner. After drinking of the liquid offered him as tea the complainant began to feel a swimming sensation in his head of which he complained. The accused then handed over a draft to the complainant to copy out which the complainant declined to do. The accused and his friends induced the complainant to write out the draft. The complainant says he was not in a fit state to understand the nature of the writing and being influenced by the accused he wrote and signed it. On regaining consciousness the complainant suspected foul play as he remembered that a false statement about a bribe of Rs. 500 offered to him for some election was embodied in the writing. Hence he demanded back the writing from the accused who promised to hand the same over to him in Bombay. The complainant went to Bombay with the accused who put him off from time to time and ultimately would not grant him an interview. Gulam Ahmed accordingly charges Moultvi Rafuddin Ahmed with cheating and dishonesty inducing delivery of property. The complainant further prayed that a search warrant for the writing be issued.

The Magistrate issued a notice on Moultvi Rafuddin Ahmed to produce the writing.

SACRIFICES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

MELBURNE, Aug. 24.

Mr. Hughes, has returned after three days' speech-making in Sydney urging Australians to prepare for greater sacrifices.

His position is regarded as being immensely strengthened and he has received numerous expressions of trust in his leadership. Although he did not mention conscription there is not the slightest doubt of his intentions. The Federal Labour Party is discussing the matter. The Federal Parliament meets on the 30th instant.

FOREST FIRES IN CANADA

MINES THREATENED.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

OTTAWA, Aug. 24.

There has been a recurrence of forest fires in Northern Ontario. Twenty farmers in Hudson township have perished. The Casey cobalt mine, near New Liskard, has been destroyed. One woman and six children were burned. Other mines are threatened. The intensity of fire is indicated by the presence of dense smoke in Ottawa, 200 miles distant.

TREATMENT OF GERMANY AFTER
THE WAR.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Aug. 24.

Commenting on the speech by Mr. Birckett at the annual meeting of the Bombay Chamber of Commerce, "The Times" believes that his declaration that Germany must be treated as a pariah and outcast until she has again won the right to recognition as a civilised nation, expresses well the view which has been firmly adopted by representative business bodies throughout Britain and is strongly held in the City of London.

QUADRANGULAR CRICKET.

PROSPECTS OF THE TEAMS.

STRONG PRESIDENCY COMBINATION.

PATIALA TO CAPTAIN HINDU TEAM.

It is little more than a week from now to the commencement of the great Quadrangular contest among the four premier cricketing communities of Western India, —the Presidency, the Parsis, the Hindus and the Mohammedans. The great carnival is being looked forward to with as keen an interest as any of its predecessors and really good sports may be expected in view of the fact that the different selection committees are doing their level best to get together the strongest possible sides. In a couple of days' time the work of striking tents on the Esplanade will be taken in hand, and Mr. Kennedy, the energetic cricket secretary of the Bombay Gymkhana, is leaving no stone unturned to make the tournament a complete success.

The Parsi and Hindu teams will be finally selected to-morrow and the Presidency and Mohammedan Elevens will be selected later on. It is not possible to make an exactly accurate forecast of the probable composition of the teams and of their prospects in the tournament. But from what information is available at present, it would appear that the Presidency have the brightest prospects of them all. No less than six county players are playing for them and the Indian teams will have their work cut out to make even a decent show against what undoubtedly is one of the strongest Elevens that have represented the Presidency Europeans in recent years.

THE PRESIDENCY.

The first names that occur to one who considering the composition of a Presidency Eleven are of course those of Major Greig, Captain Goldie and Mr. Simms. These names are household words in cricket circles not only in the Western Presidency but all over India and so well-known is their prowess at the royal game of cricket that it would be quite superfluous to more than merely mention their names. Both the "great little man" and the Sussex amateur have run up some very big scores this season and they should once more prove a tower of strength to their side. It was at one time feared that the services of Captain Goldie, also a Sussex man, would not be available this year but it now appears that he does not leave for the front until after the tournament is over. It is, however, just possible that his duties as a steward of the Western India Turf Club might take him away from Bombay on the last day of the Presidency-Hindu match but his services should be available at least for the first two days of that fixture and, if the Presidency win the first match, for all the three days of the final contest. Tarrant, the erstwhile Middlesex professional, is a certainty and though he is likely to prove a great thorn in the side of the Indian teams as he did last year, his appearance would be sincerely welcomed by all true sportsmen as the Indians are, who have never objected to his playing for the Presidency though he does not reside within the limits of the Presidency of Bombay and the Southern Command to which the selection of the European team is ordinarily confined by the rules of the tournament. The next three certainities are Mr. K. H. McCormack of Bombay, a consistent run-getting bat, Captain K. E. Cooper of Ahmednagar, a forcing bat, a useful charge-bowler and a brilliant country field, and Captain Kirkwood, an excellent man behind the stumps. All of these, mentioned above, have played for the Presidency in the past. Then there are Sir F. L. Sprott and Mr. A. C. Miller. The energy of the veteran Sir F. Sprott is really a wonderful thing and he is sure to find a place in the team in view of his consistent scoring this season. Besides, his unrivalled experience and abilities as a skipper should prove of inestimable value to his side. Mr. Miller who played for the Presidency about three years ago and who is a fine bat is another certainty for the team. The newcomers are I. P. F. Campbell, who played for Oxford and Surrey; Bowman, a good all-rounder, who has played for Lincolnshire; and Preedy, a bowler of the express type, who secured some good bowling analysis for the Bombay Gymkhana against the Elphinstone C.C. last week. The Presidency team will thus in all probability be composed of the following of whom no less than six are county players:—

- (1) Sir F. L. Sprott (Capt.)
- (2) Major J. G. Greig.
- (3) Capt. K. O. Goldie.
- (4) Mr. H. L. Simms.
- (5) Mr. E. Tarrant.
- (6) Mr. K. H. McCormack.
- (7) Capt. K. E. Cooper.
- (8) Capt. Kirkwood.
- (9) Mr. Bowman.
- (10) Mr. I. P. F. Campbell.
- (11) Mr. A. C. Miller.

THE PARSIS.

The Parsi team will almost be the same as played last year. There may be a change or two from the side that played for them in the carnival in December last otherwise it will be the same team as donned flannel for them last year. Dr. H. D. Kanga, who will skipper the side, is well-known as a fine all-rounder. Mr. J. S. Warden, who, next to Major K. M. Mistry of Patiala, is the finest all-rounder among the Parsis, has not only run up some big scores this season but has lately shown very much improved bowling form and though he cannot be said to be the great deadly bowler that he once was, he is still easily the first bowler on the Parsi side and he should reap in a goodly harvest of wickets in the Quadrangular contest. The other certainities are Mr. S. M. Chothia, whose brilliant effort saved the Parsis from a disaster last year. Mr. D. K. Kapadia, a dashing bat, who has knocked up a couple of centuries this season. Mr. D. D. Driver, a sound bat, Mr. H. Vajifdar, a fine all-rounder, Mr. Gandhi, who made his debut last year in such splendid fashion, and Mr. M. D. Parekh a good bowler. Mr. H. F. Mulla will, of course, come in if his other engagements do not keep him away. Failing him, Mr. P. J. Chinoy will be asked to keep wicket. Mr. R. P. Meherhomji, the great Parsi batsman, is sure to be included in the team if he is in good health at the time of the tournament. For the last two places the men in the running are Messrs. B. Mirza, M. B. Vatcha, J. Elavia, N. Datar, B. Bhapu, P. Daruwala, K. Irani, J. Elchidana and S. B. Nagporewalla. The Parsi Selection Committee meets to-morrow, when most probably the following will be selected:—

- (1) Dr. H. D. Kanga.
- (2) Mr. J. S. Warden.
- (3) Mr. S. M. Chothia.
- (4) Mr. D. K. Kapadia.
- (5) D. Driver.
- (6) Mr. H. Vajifdar.
- (7) Mr. M. D. Parekh.
- (8) Mr. R. P. Meherhomji.
- (9) Mr. Gandhi.
- (10) Mr. H. F. Mulla or Mr. P. J. Chinoy.
- (11) Mr. E. Mirza, Mr. M. B. Vatcha or Mr. J. Elavia.

THE HINDUS.

There will be two or three changes from the Hindu team that played in the carnival last December. Messrs. M. D. Pai, a fine dashing bat, M. H. Chandra Rana, who will lead the attack, Shivram, who only the other day secured handsome bowling analysis against the Bombay Gymkhana, P. Vithal, the best bat on the Hindu side, D. B. Deodhar, the great Poona batsman, and S. M. Joshi, the Poona trundler are certainities for the team; while the probabilities are Messrs. S. M. Dalvi and K. Swami. These two have, however, shown such good form this year that they also might be looked upon as certainities. The other probabilities are Messrs. S. Kantak, W. B. Talpade, P. Ganpat and Oghad Shunkar. It might seem somewhat strange that the names of Messrs. Kantak and Ganpat are not included among the certainities, but they do not seem to have done anything substantial this season and their chance of inclusion in the team is not strong. The might, however, run into form even yet and find a place in the team. It is not yet certain whether H. H. the Maharaja of Patiala would play for the Hindus. But it would indeed appear strange if he were not allowed to participate in the contest on the score of his place of residence being outside the limits of the Presidency of Bombay and the Southern Command, when this restriction has been removed in the case of Tarrant. None of the Selection Committees are likely to raise any objection to H. H. the Maharaja playing in the tournament and his participation might therefore be looked upon as more or less of a certainty. Indeed the time has now come when this rule of the tournament limiting the selection of the Presidency and the Hindu teams to the Presidency of Bombay and the Southern Command should be done away with for good. In the event of H. H. the Maharaja playing, Mr. Bhuta Ram of Patiala will also play and will keep wicket. Failing him, Mr. E. K. Divekar will be included in the team. The Hindu team, which will be finally selected to-morrow or on Monday, will most probably be as follows:—

- (1) H. H. the Maharaja of Patiala (Capt.).
- (2) Mr. M. D. Pai.
- (3) Mr. M. H. Chandra Rana.
- (4) Mr. P. Shivram.
- (5) Mr. P. Vithal.
- (6) Mr. D. B. Deodhar.
- (7) Mr. Bhuta Rana or Mr. S. K. Divekar.
- (8) Mr. S. M. Dalvi.
- (9) Mr. K. Swami.
- (10) Mr. S. M. Joshi.
- (11) Mr. S. Kantak, Mr. Oghad Shunkar, Mr. P. Ganpat or Mr. W. B. Talpade.

THE MAHOMEDANS.

It is indeed very deplorable that upcountry Mahomedan players would not readily respond to the invitation of the Selection Committee to come down to Bombay and contribute their mite towards the furtherance of Moslem cricket. The Committee have so far met with no less than half a dozen refusals, including those of Mr. Zia-ul-Haque of the United Provinces, and Mr. Khan Mahomed Khan and Mr. Abdul Salam of Aligarh, and it is to be regretted that these and other up-country players should not evince that enthusiasm for the cause of Moslem cricket which has been so consistently shown by that most general of cricketers, such as Mr. Saleh Mahomedkhan and Mr. Phiroze Khan, who have never shown the least hesitation in accepting the Committee's invitation and leaving even the "Happy Valley" to come down to a distant city like Bombay. In spite of the numerous refusals, the Committee hope to be able to get together a stronger team than the one that took the field last year. Messrs. Saleh Mahomed Khan, Phiroze Khan, Nazir Hussein, Yusuf Beg, K. Tambowala, and Peer Mahomed are certainities for the

MR. LLOYD GEORGE'S REVIEW

VICTORY ASSURED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
The Victory's war telegram from the Secretary of State, dated the 23rd August, says:—
Mr. Lloyd George, in the House of Commons, contrasting the present conditions with the conditions a few months ago, said that the fate of Verdun hung in the balance. The Austrians appeared about to overrun Italy. The Russians appeared to be held on the east. The new Russian levies and the British new army were untried. Now in the east and the west the initiative has been wrested from the enemy along the whole front.

Regarding the offensive on the Somme, Mr. Lloyd George said:—Rather than let the offensive break through, the Germans took guns and ammunition from Verdun and concentrated troops in front of the French and the British. This suited us for it relieved the pressure on Verdun and prevented the enemy from supporting the Austrians against the Russian great advance. All that is a change. In order to convert it into a real victory which will enable us to impose the only terms worth our while over to have entered into this war, to establish it, it is necessary that we should get every possible support that either this country or the Dominions can possibly give us. Upon this support will depend the one great question whether we shall see the end of the war in the coming year.

FIRE ON A VESSEL.

A LAKH'S DAMAGE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
CALCUTTA, Aug. 25.
In the small hours of this morning a fire broke out on a flat belonging to the India General Steam Navigation Company anchored off Juggernath Ghat.
It appears the flat arrived in port on the 23rd instant and contained 3,500 bales of jute. The cargo was being unloaded and operations continued until eleven last night after which a fire broke out. A Fire Brigade brought the fire under control after several hours' hard work. The fire, however, is still smouldering and one of the engines is still working. The damage is estimated at about a lakh of rupees.

CALCUTTA SHARE MARKET.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Aug. 25.
At the share market to-day jute opened steadily in sympathy with the gunnies, the market for which was very firm. There was, however, less activity in evidence and with demand slackening, the prices in some instances gave away a few points, the market closing easier. Calcutta shares attracted more attention and certain stocks, including Lakurika and Ghusicks, met with a very strong demand. In other directions there was not much of interest to report. The following sales took place:—
Coal.—Bengal 857 to 865; Bhulanbaroo 36-8, 36-12 x d.; Central Dharmaaband 22-8, 21-12; Ghusick 15-12, 14; Dhamabuk 8-4; Jumbo 4-12; Lakurika 23-8 to 24-8; New Kendah 7-12; Raneeungie 30-4, 30-8; Samla Kendah 13-11, 14-2; Seeteramur 15, 15-1; Sodech 5-8; Sutkidik 12-4, 12-8; Upper Pench 6-8.
Jute.—Alliance (ord) 413 to 415; Albion (pref) 121, 122; Auckland (ord) 197-8 to 201, 197-8, 198-8; Barnagore (ord) 102, 102-8, 103, 101; Budge-Budge (ord) 416, 417, 418, 1. Clive (ord) 136-8; Dalhousie (ord) 276, 277, 278, 273, 275; Delta (ord) 417; Fort William (ord) 142, 143, 141-8, 140; Gondalpara (ord) 343-8, 343-8, 343; Kankannarah (ord) 468, 469, 467; Kelvin (pref) 118, 119; Kinison (ord) 554, 556, 550; Lawrence (ord) 262, 263; Reliance (ord) 225, 226; Standard (ord) 323, 329, 326.

Miscellaneous.—Burns and Co. 6 per cent. (pref) 102; Dalhousie Gold (ord) 23 to 24; Sara Serajunge Railway 99.
Government Paper.—31 per cent. was quoted at Rs. 75-10 to Rs. 75-12 and small lots were done at Rs. 76 to Rs. 76-4.

ALLEGED SHOOTING AT A POLICE OFFICER.

ALLEGATIONS OF POLICE TORTURE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALCUTTA, Aug. 25.
At Howrah Special Tribunal, composed of Mr. H. P. Duval, District Judge, Alipur, Dewan Bahadur Hari Nath Roy, ex-Judge, Calcutta High Court, and Babu Surendranath Mullick, Vakils, commenced the hearing of a case in which a young Bengali, named Jugal Kishore Dutt was arrested on the night of the 5th instant in connection with a raid on a house in Howrah in which the police were fired on by some anarchists.

The Government Pleader, in opening the case, said the accused was sent up for attempted murder and receiving stolen property also under the Arms Act. There was a house search at Howrah on the 5th August conducted by officers of the Calcutta police, on information received that some anarchists had taken that house. During the search there was some exchange of shots. One person was caught in a tank close by while others escaped. The accused was one of the escaped persons. Head Constable Azam Khan, with another constable, while on their rounds heard pistol shots and saw the accused running. He was challenged by the constable. The accused replied firing on them, the shots, however, missing. The constables, however, secured the accused who threw away the pistol. The accused was then taken to the magistrate, made a statement admitting he had a pistol with him and he had come from the house which was searched but Jenik having fired at the head constable. Three witnesses were examined and charges were framed, the stolen property charge being dropped. The accused pleaded not guilty. He said he was beaten by some Sahibs in a house where he was taken and he was also beaten at the "Thana" and made to say this and that and had got marks of injuries on his body. The accused at the conclusion of his statement, stated he had since ascertained the names of his assailants to be Messrs. Tegart and Lowman. In reply to Mr. Duval the accused said he was taken to a doctor after he had been beaten. For three or four days he was brought into the house where the court was being held and the police advised and pressed him to make the statement. What ever else he had to say he would file a written statement.

BURMA WAR FUND.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, Aug. 25.
At a public meeting at the Jubilee Hall yesterday evening Sir Charles Fox presiding, a fund called the Burma War Fund was inaugurated for which contributions will be received ranging from one rupee upward from the whole province. Sawbwa Tawnpeng, of the Northern Shan States, has made a gift of Rs. 50,000 and Mr. A.K.A.S. Jamal, C.I.E., has given a similar sum. The fund opens with a total of nearly three lakhs. It is expected that a substantial sum will be collected by December so as to make it over to H.E. the Viceroy to forward to the British Government with an expression of loyalty and the spirit in which the gift was made by the people of Burma.

ANNOYED BY HINDU FESTIVAL MUSIC.

A EUROPEAN TAKES LAW INTO HIS OWN HANDS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

ALLAHABAD, Aug. 25.
At the Allahabad High Court Mr. Justice Walsh has decided the appeal of six Hindus who were convicted of rioting and causing hurt to Mr. Russell, Sub-Deputy Opium Agent, Budana, and sentenced by the Sessions Judge of Budana to one year's rigorous imprisonment.

It appears Mr. Russell was disturbed at night by music and beating of drums near the opium bungalow and the people refused to stop it. Mr. Russell took away the drum after some dispute. A party of men subsequently attacked Mr. Russell and his peons with stones and lathis and Mr. Russell's right arm was broken by two of the accused.

His Lordship in his judgment said Mr. Russell acted too harshly. Everybody from time to time had to put up with inconvenience from noise when other people were amusing themselves. On this occasion there appeared to have been a recognised festival with recognised celebrations at night. His Lordship was satisfied the accused persons were engaged in a perfectly lawful occupation which unfortunately happened to disturb and annoy Mr. Russell. If they were committing a breach of law Mr. Russell's proper course would have been to ascertain their names and then to lodge a complaint before a proper court. He, however, took the law into his own hand and to cut a long story short, he bungled the business. His Lordship reduced the sentence passed on the accused to the period already undergone.

RULE FOR STAY OF CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS GRANTED.

BALWANT RAMCHANDRA HIRVARGAONKAR and two others

vs. THE KING EMPEROR.

(Before Justices Beaman and Heaton.)

These were two criminal applications on the part of the accused for a stay of the criminal proceedings instituted against them in the special Magistrate's Court at Poona pending the decision of the civil suits filed against them and for bail.

The petitioners, Hirvargavkar and Gharpure were arrested at Poona on the 9th August 1916 on charge of criminal breach of trust under Sec. 489 I.P.C. in respect of several sums drawn by them from the Poona branch of the Bombay Banking Co. Ltd., in the capacity of Agents between 7-11-12 to 7-10-13. The third petitioner, P. G. Vaidya was arrested at Bombay on the 16th inst. on a charge of abetment of the above offences.

The first two were charged as agents of the Poona Branch of the Bombay Banking Company Ltd. now in liquidation. The business of the said Bombay Banking Co. Ltd. was carried on at its head office, its Secretaries, Treasurers and Agents a firm of which one S. K. Kathole was the working and managing partner and the management of the Poona Branch was carried on by V. G. Sant and Co. a firm.

The liquidator of the said Company has filed four suits against the accused in the First Class Subordinate Judge's Court at Poona to recover sums advanced to the accused and those from the subject matter of the offences alleged against the accused in this prosecution. The second petitioner therefore applied to the trying Magistrate to stay the criminal proceedings pending the disposal of the Civil Suits, but the Magistrate by his order dated the 15th August 1916 refused to stay the proceedings. The petitioners also applied to the Magistrate to release them on bail but the applications were not granted. Aggrieved by these orders the petitioners applied to the High Court to stay the proceedings and to release them on bail.

Their Lordships after hearing Counsel granted the rule and released the first two applicants on bail on their own recognizances of Rs. 10,000 and two sureties of Rs. 5,000 each. The third applicant got his discharge as an innocent only on the 2nd instant, so he was released on bail on his own recognizance for Rs. 1,000 and two sureties for Rs. 500 each.

Mr. J. E. Gopal applied for Mr. R. G. Kher appeared for the first two applicants. Mr. B. G. Kher appeared for the third applicant.

SUICIDE COMMITTED BY THE ACCUSED

QUESTION OF PENALIZING THE SURETIES.

RAMA BAI PEARI AND ANOTHER vs. THE KING EMPEROR.

(Before Justices Beaman and Heaton.)

This was a criminal application for revision against the decision of the District Magistrate at Sholapur. The facts are briefly these:—

One Tulshiram was charged in the court of the 2nd class Magistrate at Madha in the Sholapur District under section 411 of the Indian Penal Code with having received stolen property. The applicants stood sureties for the accused Tulshiram, in the sum of Rs. 500 each. After several adjournments, the hearing was fixed for 12th November 1915. On that day the accused Tulshiram was found on the 24th in a field and that he seemed to have committed suicide. The applicants not having any definite knowledge admitted before the Magistrate that the accused Tulshiram was alive on the 19th. The Magistrate made an order calling upon the applicants to pay the penalty of their bonds, viz., Rs. 500 each, which they did.

On appeal to the District Magistrate of Sholapur, he upheld the order of the 2nd class Magistrate, holding that the applicants were bound by their admission that the accused was living on the 19th and that his subsequent death would not have the effect of absolving the applicants. It was contended before their Lordships that the most important point was when the accused Tulshiram died and granting that he died on or after the day on which he was to appear, whether it would not be harsh to call upon the applicants to pay the full penalty when the accused committed suicide as the prosecution alleged.

Their Lordships set aside the order of forfeiture and ordered that the amount of the bonds, if it has been recovered should be refunded to the sureties.

DETAINING A MARRIED WOMAN.

ACCUSED ACQUITTED.

Before Justices Beaman and Heaton.

LALLU RANCHOD vs. THE KING EMPEROR.

This was a criminal application for revision against the decision of Mr. B. C. Kennedy Sessions Judge of Ahmedabad, who confirmed the conviction and sentence passed on the accused.

The case had come for admission before their Lordships Batchelor and Shah when Mr. Dhirajlal K. Thakore, instructed by Messrs. Ratnaji and Hiraji J. Kania appeared for the accused. Then their Lordships had granted a rule.

On a trial held on the 30th of March 1916 by Mr. M. M. Joshi, First Class Magistrate of Dholka of the District of Ahmedabad Lallu was convicted of detaining a married woman Jivi with immoral purposes, an offence under section 488 of the Indian Penal Code and sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment.

Jivi is the wife of the complainant Vital and it appeared that she quarrelled with her husband Vital and went to the house of one Motishankar in Modasur whose wife is her relation. The complainant then went to Moti Shankar and asked him about his wife. Moti Shankar informed the complainant that the accused Lallu had taken her away. As the complainant did not find his wife with Lallu he returned home and lodged a complaint against Moti Shankar in the Wadhawan State. Moti Shankar was acquitted by the Wadhawan Court as he said that Bai Jivi was lured away from his house by Lallu. The complainant then lodged a complaint of adultery at the Dholka Court. Since then the girl lived in Modasur and had given birth to a child. She did not state who was directly responsible for that child. She said she lived by labour, but the Court did believe that several people Modasur spoke to her living with the present accused. The Sessions Judge saw no reason to differ from the finding of the Magistrate that the accused had been living with Jivi but though he was well aware that she was the wife of the complainant. Their Lordships set aside the conviction and the sentence, as there was no case made out against the accused.

Mr. Ratnaji Ranchoodas with Mr. Hiraji J. Kania appeared for the accused.

ADMINISTRATOR OF AN ESTATE

COMMISSIONER'S POWERS TO GO INTO MORTGAGE ACCOUNTS.

(Before Mr. Justice Macleod.)

LUXIMBAI, WIDOW AND OTHERS, PLAINTIFFS v. HUSSAINBHAI AHMEDBHAI AND OTHERS, DEFENDANTS.

An important point of law was decided by Mr. Justice Macleod on a question in the above suit, which came before his Lordship by way of motion.

The facts of the case as well as the contentions of the parties appear from his Lordship's judgment, the full text of which is given below:—

In this suit a decretal order of reference was made on the 7th November, 1913, to take the following accounts, viz.:—2nd account of what was due by the plaintiffs to the defendant for principal and interest on the mortgage mentioned in the pleadings and it was directed that in such account the defendant should be debited with all the rents and profits accrued from the property mentioned in the pleadings and the sale proceeds of any machinery or building materials sold by him and be given credit for all costs and expenses properly incurred by him in maintaining the property or working the mills.

The first defendant died after the order was made and the present sixth and seventh defendants are the heirs of the deceased. The suit No. 966 of 1914 for administration of the estate. The receivers brought in an account of the mortgage debt and filed it before the Commissioner. The account showed a balance of Rs. 16,73,022-20 due to the plaintiffs. The plaintiffs filed objections which amounted to Rs. 21,50,992-21. Out of these objections against the original defendant having paid a sum of Rs. 16,73,022-20 due to the mortgage property alone amount to Rs. 3,69,492-8-0. Objections against the payment of insurance premia amount to Rs. 39,467-8-0.

The sixth and seventh defendants objected to the Commissioner hearing these objections, on the ground that there was no dispute as to the amount paid by the original defendant by way of rent and insurance and the question whether the original defendant could have credit for the payments was a question wholly of law or of mixed law and fact and should be determined by the judge who tried the case.

The Commissioner, however, expressed the opinion that under the said reference he had power to go into the questions even though they involved questions of law or of mixed law and fact. Whereupon, defendants 6 and 7 moved before me for an order that the directions should be given to the Commissioner for taking accounts of this Hon. Court that it was not open to him to determine the objections of the plaintiffs in the accounts brought in by the sixth and seventh defendants challenging the right of the original defendant to have credit in the account for ground rent and insurance premia paid by him and the proceeds of the sale of the property, the same should be tried by the Court.

It is admitted that there is no precedent in this Court for such an application. The Commissioner should be at liberty upon the application of any party interested to make a separate report or reports from an account of the mortgage account, and the Commissioner should be at liberty to make a separate report or reports from an account of the mortgage account, and the Commissioner should be at liberty to make a separate report or reports from an account of the mortgage account.

PRACTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT. Mr. Strangman, however, on behalf of the sixth and seventh defendants, has asked me to adopt the same practice as is prescribed by the rules of the Supreme Court. Order 35 of those rules is headed "Chambers in the Chancery Division" and under Rule 69 "any party may before the proceedings before the master are concluded, take the opinion of the judge upon any matter arising in the course of the proceedings without any fresh summons for the purpose." On page 374 of volume 36 of the solicitors' journal there is a note relating to an unreported case in which an order was made by the judge expressing an opinion under Rule 69 as to the principle on which a claim against an estate should be dealt with by the Chief Clerk. An appeal having been filed against this order, no order was made on the appeal but the judge without prejudice to the right of the appellants to raise upon summons to vary the Chief Clerk's certificate after it had been made, the question of the Chief Clerk's certificate and the question of the Chief Clerk's certificate and the question of the Chief Clerk's certificate.

INCONVENIENT AND OPPRESSIVE PROCEDURE.

The Lords Justices expressed strongly their opinion that upon an application of this kind under Rule 69 an order ought not to be drawn up for this highly inconvenient result would follow that the order might be varied by the appeal might be carried over to the House of Lords and then after the certificate had been made, the matter might be reheard on an application to vary the Chief Clerk's certificate and there might be a second appeal to the House of Lords. That would be most inconvenient and oppressive. On such an application the opinion of the judge was given for the guidance of his Chief Clerk and no formal order ought to be drawn up. Therefore, if I admitted this application and adopting the practice prescribed by Rule 69, expressed an opinion on the points which are now in dispute regarding the payment of ground rent and insurance premia, it might be that a party who was dissatisfied with that opinion might appeal against the order and the judge might even take to the Privy Council. For it would be problematical whether this Court would follow the opinion expressed by the Lords Justices in the case, I have just referred to. But it would be very undesirable to open up an entirely new procedure with regard to references to the Commissioner, unless I was of opinion that I was entitled to adopt the procedure prescribed by Rule 69 as above referred to.

UNDESIRABLE IN THE INTERESTS OF JUSTICE.

But I am decidedly of opinion that as in the High Court rules there is no rule similar to Rule 69 of Order 55, it is not open to any of the parties to the reference to ask the judge to express an opinion on the points which have arisen in the taking of the accounts. From the notes in the annual practice it appears that applications under that rule are rare. Moreover, it is not in my opinion in the interests of justice that parties to a reference should be at liberty to stop the proceedings in moving the Court to give its opinion on a point of law, which has arisen which the Court can decide.

APPLICATION DISMISSED.

It is certainly desirable that the Commissioner should deal with such questions and the parties objecting to his decision then should pursue their ordinary course by filing exceptions to his report. But I must not be taken as holding that the Court once a reference has been made to the Commissioner, loses all control over the proceedings until the Commissioner has made his report. There may be cases in which the Court may find it necessary to withdraw the proceedings from the Commissioner and resume the hearing itself, but such cases must necessarily be of rare occurrence. It is a different matter to ask the Court to resume the hearing merely for the purpose of deciding certain questions which come within the powers of the Court.

In my opinion, therefore, the application must be dismissed with costs.

THIRD YEAR OF WAR

GREAT PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATIONS.

MR. ASQUITH'S NOTE OF CONFIDENCE.

On August 4 the King and Queen attended a special service of intercession at Buckingham Palace in the morning, the Archbishop of Canterbury officiating. The day was also noteworthy for the gathering of large congregations in many places of worship, and the occasion was appropriately marked at St. Paul's Westminster Abbey, and in the provinces. Under the auspices of the National Patriotic Association no fewer than 3,000 meetings and processions were held.

Mr. Asquith and Mr. Bonar Law were the principal speakers at the great Imperial patriotic meeting at the Queen's Hall, London, Lord Derby presided and the hall was crowded. Among those on the platform were Mrs. Asquith, the Russian and Italian Ambassadors, the Belgian Minister and several members of the Cabinet and the Dominion High Commissioners.

There was an air of festival about the meeting. It was inspiring and significant, and through it all ran a note of courage and high endeavour.

A specially hearty welcome was given to M. Painleve, the brilliant Frenchman who now fills the role in Paris of Minister of Inventions for the national defence. Sir George Foster, the Canadian Minister of Trade and Commerce, and the Hon. W. P. Schreiner were also heartily welcomed.

Admiral Jellicoe telegraphed:—"The second anniversary of the commencement of the war finds the British Empire full of confidence in the final result. This confidence is due to the fact that the cause for which we are fighting is just, as well as to the knowledge that we possess of the fighting qualities displayed by the forces of the Mother-country and the Empire beyond the seas equally with those of our gallant Allies."

The second anniversary of the war finds the British Army, which now comprises units from all parts of our Empire, acting on the offensive. The great armies of working men and women at home and overseas have contributed very greatly to this result. Their continued hard work and their decision to take no general holiday until our objectives have been obtained would certainly decisively affect the issues of the war in the coming year of struggle.

Two years of desperate warfare in the trenches have still further increased the feeling of comradeship which binds us to our Allies, and have made us still more inflexible in our determination to carry the third to victory in this war, which is not of our choosing. We look forward with confidence to success and a triumphant peace.

Lord Derby said England and every part of the Dominions stood just as firmly united in the determination which had prompted them to go into the war, and that was to see the militarism of Germany crushed once and for all. Although we might not be in sight of the end yet, never since the beginning of the war had we stood in as favourable a position as we did to-day.

THE EMPIRE'S ANSWER.
Mr. Asquith, who never had a more enthusiastic reception from any audience said:—

Two years ago, in the weeks, which preceded the outbreak of war, Germany was the victim of a double delusion. She was absolutely certain that she should never join France and Russia in arms, and she was equally assured that Belgium could be coerced into allowing her a right of way into France. That was a mistake, and as it turned out, a very costly mistake, for in the two years that had passed this Empire of ours, the most peace-loving family of communities on the face of the civilised globe, had raised and sent into the field five millions of its sons to frustrate those designs. (Cheers.) That was our answer to those who thought they could safely treat us here as so wrapped up in the selfish way of material prosperity and so enervated by wealth, comfort and moral decay that we had lost both the sense of honour and the power to vindicate it at the risk of life.

Germany sought not only a larger place in the sun, but through the subjugation of smaller States and the crippling of larger ones that might presume to stand in her way, she aimed at the domination of the western world. Therefore, when the glove was thrown down two years ago and taken up by the Allied Powers, we very soon recognised—we know it well to-day—that we had reached one of those epoch-making issues in which the contest is not between one Power and another or between one group of Powers and another, but in which the contest is between separate and irreconcilable ideals—(cheers)—between, on one side, forces which stand for freedom, for variety of type and of organisation, for the unfettered progress of humanity; and on the other, forces which are bound sooner or later to suppress and sterilise all the possible seeds of a transformed and regenerated world. (Cheers.)

It was the growing consciousness that this war was something more than a mere clash of arms that accounted for the new spirit which had been breathed into our nation. It was a spirit tempered and strengthened by the ordeal of two years' stern and searching discipline, which thought prevailed and upheld every class of our fellow subjects in every quarter of the dominions.

He would like to draw particular attention to the unbroken unity of the Allies. Nothing had been more remarkable during the last year than the success with which the Allies had developed and pursued a common policy and a united plan. At the moment he was glad to be able to say that for all the purposes of war there was a complete concert between them. There could be no better demonstration of the fact than the concurrent offensive which was now being pushed with such success on three fronts.

Coming to ourselves, Mr. Asquith said he thought the most conspicuous and encouraging feature of last year had been the enormous growth both in numbers and in quality of our fighting forces. The New Armies which in the last month had been gaining immemorial honour in the blood-stained villages of Picardy, were the best memorial Lord Kitchener could have desired. (Cheers.) After a glowing tribute to the Navy's achievements in the Jutland battle, the Premier said, "Let us never forget that the Navy, unobtrusive and silent, always on the watch, with its ever tightening grip, is starving German power of resistance and throttling the life of Germany." (Cheers.)

AT THE ALBERT HALL.
At the Albert Hall the same afternoon over 4,000 wounded soldiers and sailors gathered to hear a lecture on "Empire and the War" by Mr. Herbert Garrison. The audience included 600 men who fought at the battle of Jutland, and Australians and New Zealanders were also present. Some were carried in on stretchers, and as they arrived the huge crowd cheered again and again.

Sir Francis Lloyd presided, and told the audience that they were there to remember the past, to rejoice in the present, and to emphasise their determination for the future. During an interval there was a gigantic tea party, and afterwards the massed bands of the Guards gave a recital, when General Sir Smith-Dorrien presided.

IN THE PROVINCES.
Services were held in the cathedrals at Birmingham, Manchester, Bristol, Glasgow and Edinburgh, and many other cities. At Birmingham there was a church parade and drum-head service. About 8,000 people attended the service at Aldershot, General Sir Archibald and Lady Hunter and the chief officers of the Aldershot staff being present. There was a special service at St. George's Chapel, Windsor Castle, and at a meeting under the castle walls the national anthems of the Allies were played by the band of the Life Guards, and a resolution was passed to the roll of the drums.

Meetings were held during the dinner-hour at Newcastle-on-Tyne works and at night a mass meeting took place at the Town Hall and in the open air. At Portsmouth the people flowed to the Town Hall meeting like a great black sea, for most of them were in mourning. At Harland and Wolff's works, Belfast, after a service had been held, a resolution was passed pledging the workers to do all they could to aid in bringing the war to a victorious conclusion.

FOR PRINCES AND RICH MEN ONLY.

THE ROYAL YAKUTI (ANANG VILAS)

This Yakuti or life-giving nectar has been prepared from the best, choicest and richest vegetable drugs. It has a wonderful property of increasing the nerve power and is specific for diseases. This valuable medicine is used in large quantities among Rajas, Maharajas and many of our esteemed customers. But we have ventured to give it publication simply with a view to place it before the general public owing to the demand of several friends. It is needless to expatiate upon the magical qualities of this our invaluable medicine. We would not like to blow the trumpet as is the fashion of the day, but suffice it to say that the use of this medicine is recommended to those who have any faith in the efficacy of Ayurvedic and Unani persons who desire to tone up the nervous system, to strengthen the body, refresh the memory and to guard against debility. It works like a charm and the effect is lasting. It restores strength and it is enough to say that music is not that which a performer admires, it is that which diffuse fragrances of its own accord. Price per tin containing 40 pills, Rupees ten only. Postage extra. No PARHEZ necessary.

GERMAN EMPEROR AS BLACKMAILER.

THREAT TO SPANISH CATHOLICS.

The Address of the Spanish Catholics to Belgium has caused very natural annoyance both at the German Embassy in Madrid and at Berlin. The Germans got wind of it some weeks ago, says the Madrid correspondent of "The Times," and attacked it in their subsidized Press as a pro-Ally manoeuvre, with the object of frightening away intending signatories.

So great was their dread of this apparently inoffensive document that they had recourse to even less savoury methods. Well-known members of the Spanish aristocracy, whose family possess a fine estate in Belgium, received a special intimation from the Emperor William, through a channel which could not be ignored, that, unless they withdrew their signatures to this Address, the old trees in their park would be cut down, while in their mansion would be billeted the "roughest soldiers in the German Army," who would "defile and destroy the furniture." They were further warned that reprisals would be taken against the Spaniards resident in Belgium. The threat was not an empty one, for, in the early days of the war, the agent of this very estate had been taken as a hostage by the Germans and shot. The signatures in question were withdrawn accordingly, not without much searching of heart for the signatories belong to one of the oldest and proudest of Spanish families.

In the same way Senor Ramon y Cajal, the famous scientist, was prevented from signing by his fear of a German boycott. His assistant put his name to an earlier manifesto in favour of the Allies, and the Germans, as a punishment, refused to supply him any longer with certain products necessary to his experiments.

Apart from these cases of successful blackmail, German efforts to discredit the movement seem to have failed. For recently an address has been published to the world, a restrained, dignified, and weighty document, of unimpeachable neutrality, subscribed by over 400 of the most distinguished figures in the Spanish Catholic world.

ANGLO-INDIAN DIVORCE CASE.

ONE OF THE "MISSING" AS CO-RESPONDENT.

The Court of Appeal allowed the appeal of Mr. E. N. Bell, of Bridgewater, an Indian Civil Servant, from the refusal of Mr. Justice Baggallay to allow him to proceed with a suit for divorce without naming the co-respondent. The allegation was that adultery was committed with a Captain W. C. G. Ransford, who was reported missing on October 25, 1914, and whose death had been presumed for official purposes. The War Office had stated that the Army Council felt bound to assume that Captain Ransford was dead.

Captain Alfred Lionel Horner, Royal Army Veterinary Corps, home from France on leave, was granted a decree nisi and costs on the ground of misconduct between his wife, Hilda Mary, and Captain Gordon Hathaway Mackintosh, of the Indian Army. No defence was set up. It was stated that the husband in France found among his correspondence a letter dated January 15, from a steamer, addressed to his wife as follows:—

"My precious girlie—how are you getting on? It is just hell being separated from you, my wonder girl, and I don't know how I am going to bear it. It is just too sickening for anything being so near you and not being able to get to you. I spend most of my time looking at the Navanah—a steamer in which the wife travelled—through a telescope trying to find my girlie. I saw you yesterday morning but have not done so since. Please come as often as you can, darling, to the side on which we are, so that I can get a glimpse of you now and then. Have just got out orders to move, sweetheart, so that I doubt if I will be able to get this to you, but I should like you just to know that boy loves you still and is thinking of you all the time?"

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS.

PHYSICIANS RECOMMEND THE USE OF MAGNESIA.

Sufferers from indigestion or dyspepsia should remember that the presence of gas or wind in the stomach invariably indicates that the stomach is troubled by excessive acidity.

This acid causes the food to ferment and the fermenting food in turn gives rise to noxious gases which distend the stomach, hamper the normal functions of vital internal organs, cause acute headaches, interfere with the action of the heart, and charge the blood stream with deadly poisons, which in time must ruin the health. Physicians say that to quickly dispel a dangerous accumulation of wind in the stomach and to stop the food fermentation which creates the gas, the acid in the stomach must be neutralized, and that for this purpose there is nothing quite so good as half a teaspoonful of pure bisaturated magnesia taken in a little water immediately after meals. This instantly neutralizes the acid, thus stopping fermentation and the formation of gas, and soothes the inflamed, distended stomach to proceed with its work under natural conditions. Bisaturated magnesia is obtainable in powder or tablet form from any chemist; but as there are many different forms of magnesia it is important that the bisaturated which the physicians prescribe should be distinctly asked for.

THE "MODERN REVIEW,"

CALCUTTA, March 1915.

By the courtesy of Mr. G. K. Mhatre, the sculptor, we are enabled to reproduce a photograph of the statue of H. H. Chamarajendra Wodeyar, the late Maharaja of Mysore, which is one of Mr. Mhatre's latest works. We understand H. H. the present Maharaja of Mysore has expressed satisfaction with the work, which is only to be expected. For it is a fine work of art. For those in India who want statues or busts to be made, there is no excuse for placing their orders abroad, before they have ascertained Mr. Mhatre's terms. In his case, it is not merely swadeshim which prompts us to prefer his work the quality of the work, too, demands recognition.

"KARNATAK,"

BANGALORE, 29th April, 1914.

Among the other notable productions of Mr. Mhatre are an excellent and life-like marble statue of Mr. M. G. Ranade and a thoroughly true and graceful bust of H. H. Sri Chamarajendra Wodeyar which is such a brilliant and noble contrast to the supposed likeness of our late sovereign placed in the Lal-Bagh.

Warning to Tea and Coffee Drinkers.

Coffee contains a poisonous drug—"Caffeine" about 2½ grains to the cup. Tea contains nearly as much.

Caffeine is a cumulative drug—it works away little by little, adding to yesterday's effects, and slowly but surely undermines and destroys health. Some of the signs are headache, sleeplessness, biliousness, heart flutter, nervous trouble, and other disorders, and, above all, the much-complained-of constipation.

An yet Coffee and Tea drinkers often wonder why they have such ailments.

VICIOUS SCHOOL INSPECTIONS.

MUNICIPAL SCANDAL.

(From our Correspondent.)

Aug. 22.

A correspondent only the other day drew very pointed attention to the increasingly aggressive character of the recent school inspections. He informed us that not only were the question papers ordered to be produced but the answer papers also! But your readers will be surprised to know that two disagreeable features were added to the otherwise harassing round of inspection this year in this city. The usual practice is that the Divisional Inspector calls for certain statistical tables and detailed information about the progress of studies beforehand and satisfies himself,—for he alone came till now,—with general inspection of the school building and the class rooms, occasionally, stopping to see how a teacher explains his subject to the students. But fancy an army of Assistant Deputy Inspectors whose ordinary duty it is to inspect primary schools in the villages and who draw a pay of Rs. 100 or Rs. 125 a month, raiding a Secondary School.

But this is what actually happened when not less than three Assistant Deputy Inspectors, contrary to all custom and precedents, recently accompanied the Divisional Inspector on his yearly visit. What is still worse, they did not content themselves with silently looking on when teachers,—some of them far superior to them in educational qualifications and position,—taught their classes; but being habituated to the inspection of village schools they unhesitatingly poured a volley of questions on the devoted heads of the students. Indeed, in these circumstances the managers of the private schools should thank their stars that as many inspectors did not turn up for inspection as there were classes in their school.

LOYALTY BOND.

Another feature which caused no less surprise and consternation in educational circles here was the attempt to have the so-called loyalty bonds signed by the teachers of private high schools. Now no true subject of his Majesty can have any objection to sign a bond merely declaring unswerving loyalty to the Crown and the Empire. It is fairly safe to do so because the most innocent man to-day runs the risk of being caught in the meshes of the host of penal laws which adorn the statute books to-day. But the bond in fact not only binds the signatory to the homage of loyalty but also prevents him from taking part in any public movement, political or otherwise. Fortunately an objection was taken against the necessity of signing of these bonds by the manager of a big high school here. Hence the attempt came to an untimely end but not before two teachers of another private high school had unworthily signed them.

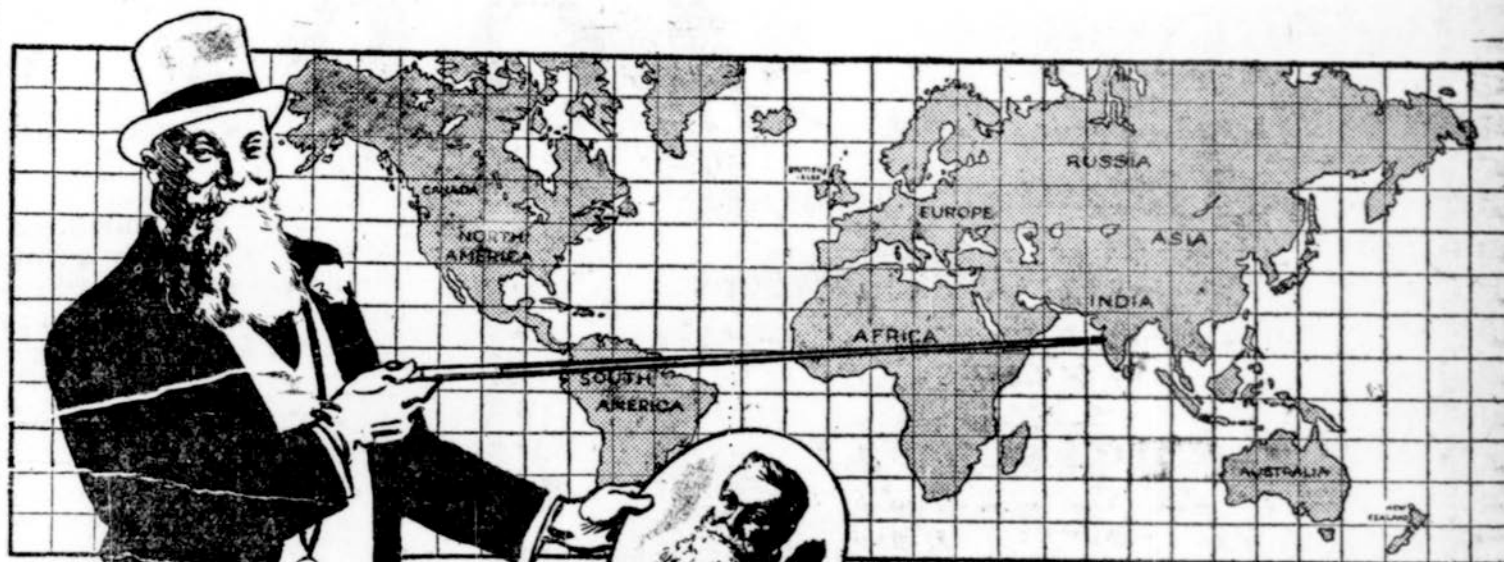

MUNICIPAL SCANDAL.

Great excitement prevails here over the final appointment of Mr. Mackosie as an Engineer, which was decided upon in the meeting of the local Municipality held recently. A good deal was suggested by the two questions which the able Councillor Mr. Mulchand, put to the Chairman about the alleged canvassing of votes by the Municipal Commissioners on behalf of the European applicant. The Chairman's reply was clever and evasive, but it has not allayed the shrewd suspicions of the people of the city. Both the other applicants, Mr. Bhawe and Mr. Patel, were men of English qualifications in the subject of engineering while their successful competitor can plume himself on some stray experience in Belfast and Dublin and on his temporary appointment on the staff of the G. I. P. Railway. A hot discussion naturally ensued, but as was expected, Mr. Mackosie won the contest by a very narrow majority. According to the awkward practice which prevails here, votes were first taken on the proposals of Mr. Bhawe and Mr. Mackosie, the former getting 18 and the latter 21 votes. The proposals for Mr. Patel and Mr. Mackosie were then voted upon, the former securing 19 and the latter 20 votes. The question has not been, however, finally decided, because a requisition signed by about twenty Councillors has been sent, to the Chairman for reconsidering some points. But about that hereafter.

THE CONFERENCES.

The work of all the conferences which are to assemble here at the end of October is smoothly progressing. No site has been finally chosen either for the conference pandal or for the accommodation of the delegates. The Hon. Mr. R. P. Paranjpe has consented to preside over the Social Conference and the dates have been finally decided upon. As the Provincial Conference meets on 21st and 22nd October the Social Conference meets at noon of 23rd and on the morning of 24th. The Educational Conference meets on the morning of 23rd and at noon on 24th under the presidency of the Hon. Mr. C. H. Setalvad. Writing about this conference I am glad to be able to say that the Secretaries have already at their disposal very valuable information and opinions from all parts of Gujarat. Most members of the Municipalities and Local Boards write harshly about the control of the Government and all unanimously ask for more and better schools. It may be still more interesting to know that quite a large number of people urge the necessity of free and compulsory education. But what is most important, the consensus of opinion collected here will undoubtedly give a final death blow to the system of rural standards against which every one of them speaks with irresistible arguments and cogent facts. It is further hoped that the conference will raise its emphatic voice in favour of the resolution moved and carried in the Legislative Council by the Hon. Mr. Paranjpe, as the Gokhale Society has appointed a strong committee to report on the suitability of present text books.
